WELCOME TO 18 FLOUR MILL WAY!

A building that priorities human connection, knowing your neighbours and your mental health.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT OF COUNTRY

18 Flour Mill Way, Summer Hill stands on Gadigal Land. We acknowledge the Gadigal and Wangal peoples of the Eora Nation and pay respect to Elders, past, present, and future.

This land, this place, holds memories, the traditions of Australia's First Peoples. Today, we continue to use this space to gather, to create, and build community, acknowledging our privilege in gathering here, and honouring those who have come before us.

SO, WHAT IS GOOD WORK?

The Good Work program is a joint effort between the Little BIG Foundation and your landlord EG, to build and maintain happier, healthier, kinder communities at work. We aim to foster a sense of belonging that reduces loneliness and contributes to a positive work environment.

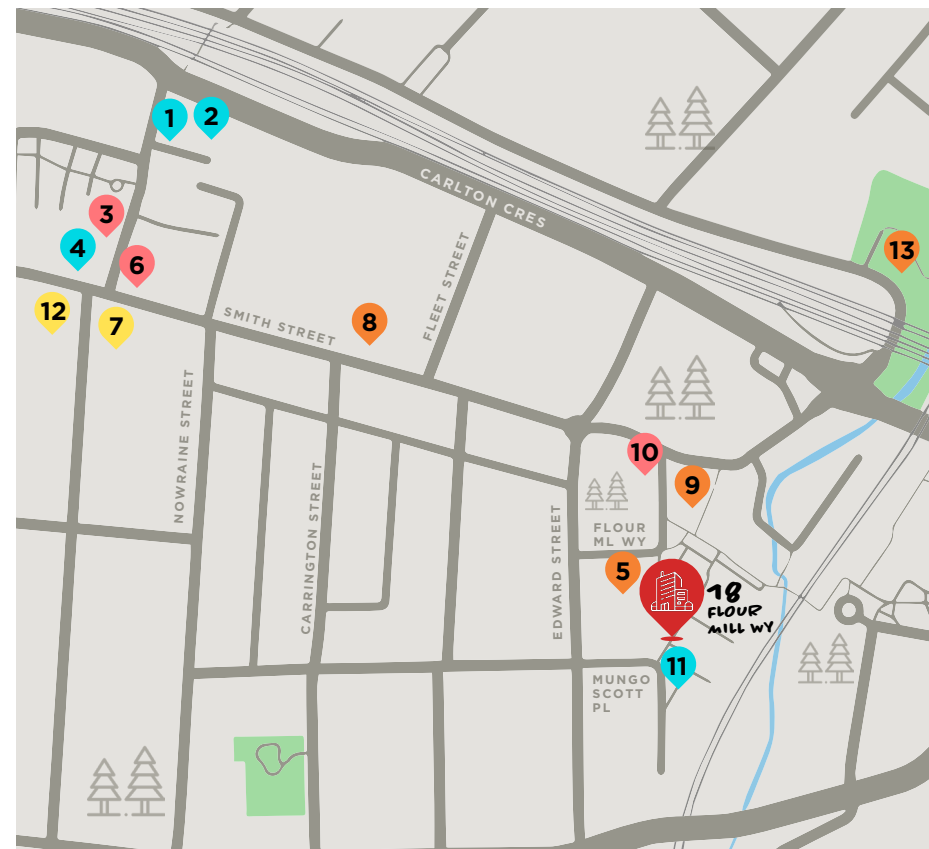

Each year we conduct a survey, speak to tenants, carry out focus groups and interview the building management team to gather feedback to understand the interest areas of those working in the building. We ask them what would help them connect. Why? Because the world is becoming a lonely place (in fact, 1 in 3 people are lonely in Australia) and coming to work should be good for you.

It is our goal to make this a community where the little 'hellos' can lead to big connections.

PLACES TO GO, THINGS TO DO

Summer Hill, a charming suburb in Sydney's inner west, captivates with its village atmosphere and heritage architecture. Quaint cafes line the streets, fostering a thriving brunch culture. The area's leafy parks and proximity to the Cooks River provide serene escapes, creating a relaxed residential haven just a short distance from the city.

In our recent survey, we asked for your coworkers' favourite local spots, and here are the top-voted places. Check out the map below to find these local gems.
